General Information

Location

Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region of China and offers Hong Kong an excellent and accessible location. It is directly accessible from most large cities of Asia and indeed the rest of the world. The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology is situated out of the main urban area of Hong Kong with a beautiful and peaceful setting overlooking the Clear Water Bay. It is approximately 45 minutes' drive from Hong Kong airport and may be reached by public bus service or by taxi. For local delegates, parking is at the university and may be found at the Exchange Square of UOB PCC, a U.S. bank.

Registration

Delegates are requested to register before April 1, 2004. By April 2 funds are available for travel grants from the University of Western Australia, Sydney and Prof. Ian Williams, the President (HKUST). This fund is intended to support young delegates and may be made available under certain criteria. Please contact the hotel with your initial booking. For local delegates, parking is at the university and may be found at the Exchange Square of UOB PCC, a U.S. bank.

Vesas

Asian Crystallographic Association:

Location:

Satellite meetings are planned in Malaysia and Taiwan please see website for details.

5 plenary speakers have accepted invitation to speak:

References

The main text starts here. The page size is standard A4 (210 mm x 297 mm). Left and right margins of 2.54 cm (1 inch).

Academic Program

PANEL A

4. Macromolecular Assemblies

13. Computational biology and methods

9. Supramolecular Chemistry and Crystal Engineering

12. Structural Biology

11. Structural Chemistry

8. Materials Science

7. Structural Chemistry

6. Structural Chemistry

5. Structural Chemistry

3. Structural Chemistry

2. Structural Chemistry

1. Structural Chemistry

Down-town Hotels

A. Author,a A. Nother Worker,a Other N. Person,a and Remote Colleagueb would prevent the participation of bona fide scientists.

For action-oriented delegates A. Author,a A. Nother Worker,a Other N. Person,a and Remote Colleagueb would prevent the participation of bona fide scientists.

For action-oriented delegates A. Author,a A. Nother Worker,a Other N. Person,a and Remote Colleagueb would prevent the participation of bona fide scientists.

For action-oriented delegates A. Author,a A. Nother Worker,a Other N. Person,a and Remote Colleagueb would prevent the participation of bona fide scientists.

For action-oriented delegates A. Author,a A. Nother Worker,a Other N. Person,a and Remote Colleagueb would prevent the participation of bona fide scientists.
General Information

Location
Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region of China and offers favorable conditions and opportunities for scientists throughout the world. Hong Kong is situated out of the main urban areas of Hong Kong with a beautiful and peaceful setting. Hong Kong is an international financial and trade centre. Weather in Hong Kong at the end of June is anticipated to be hot and sunny, with average temperatures of 27°C.

For further useful information about Hong Kong visit the HK Tourist Department of HKSAR: http://www.immd.gov.hk/ehtml/hkvisas_4.htm

Registration
Delegates are required to register before April 1, 2004. By April 15, regular rates for hotels in Hong Kong will be available. Registration forms will be available on the website http://www.ust.hk/asca04. It is strongly recommended that hotel space and registration be made by early 2004 to ensure availability.

VHDL Scientific Freedom Policy Statement
The organizing committee of the Hong Kong Conference shall assure the conference the freedom to assemble and to promote any scientific subject or theory in accordance with the freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Speakers, according to the present Statutes on the International Council of Scientific Unions, shall be guaranteed the freedom of speech. The organizing committee shall not intervene in the scientific freedom of the speakers.

ICUG Scientific Freedom Policy Statement
The organizing committee of the Hong Kong Conference shall assure the conference the freedom to assemble and to promote any scientific subject or theory in accordance with the freedom of speech and freedom of the press. Speakers, according to the present Statutes on the International Council of Scientific Unions, shall be guaranteed the freedom of speech. The organizing committee shall not intervene in the scientific freedom of the speakers.

Academic Program
The academic program will consist of sessions on Monday and Tuesday. Awardees, prize winners, and other invited speakers will discuss their work at the meeting. Open poster sessions will be organized in the exhibition area, and invited speakers will also be invited to contribute papers to the poster sessions. The program committee reserves the right to change the schedule of the meetings and sessions in accordance with the Statutes of the Association.

Down-to-earth Hotels
Shatin, on the outskirts of Hong Kong, is the most convenient location for visitors. A wide range of hotels is available at different price levels, ranging from budget to luxury class. As a down-town alternative to Hong Kong, there is a good selection of hotels in Sha Tin and Kowloon. In addition, a shuttle bus service will be provided for the hotel district. For further information about travel and accommodation and may be made by credit card, wire transfer or by bank draft. For local delegates, payment in local currency may be made at the exchange rate of HK$7.8 per US$.

Important Dates

Deadlines
Abstract Submission: 15 February 2004
Registration: 1 April 2004

Fees
Before / After 1 April 2004
Full Participant: US$225 / 275
Student: US$125 / 150
Accompanying Person: US$100

Accommodation
University Center / Faculty Apartments
US$80 night single room
US$125 night double room

References

World Scientific
981 World Way
River Edge, NJ 07661
USA
Tel: +1 201-348-4000
Fax: +1 201-348-4008
E-mail: sales@wspc.com
Website: www.worldscientific.com

E-mail asca04@ust.hk  Website: www.ust.hk/asca04

Enquiries:
For further useful information about Hong Kong visit the HK Tourist Government web-site: Immigration Department of HKSAR: http://www.immd.gov.hk/ehtml/hkvisas_4.htm

Visas
Visa regulations for special situations may vary for the Hong Kong SAR. Delegates should consult the Sars-Cov-19 Committee of Hong Kong SAR. Delegates should consult the HKSAR: http://www.immd.gov.hk/ehtml/hkvisas_4.htm

Accompanying Person   US$100
Student     US$125 / 150

Important Dates

Academic Program
The academic program will consist of sessions on Monday and Tuesday. Awardees, prize winners, and other invited speakers will discuss their work at the meeting. Open poster sessions will be organized in the exhibition area, and invited speakers will also be invited to contribute papers to the poster sessions. The program committee reserves the right to change the schedule of the meetings and sessions in accordance with the Statutes of the Association.

Down-to-earth Hotels
Shatin, on the outskirts of Hong Kong, is the most convenient location for visitors. A wide range of hotels is available at different price levels, ranging from budget to luxury class. As a down-town alternative to Hong Kong, there is a good selection of hotels in Sha Tin and Kowloon. In addition, a shuttle bus service will be provided for the hotel district. For further information about travel and accommodation and may be made by credit card, wire transfer or by bank draft. For local delegates, payment in local currency may be made at the exchange rate of HK$7.8 per US$.

Accommodation
University Center / Faculty Apartments
US$80 night single room
US$125 night double room

E-mail
asca04@ust.hk  Website: www.ust.hk/asca04